

Usability Review

I received feedback regarding the layout of my page and some of my links. I realized that, in my wireframes, I had neglected to put a link for the landing page in the sidebar. I also decided that instead of putting a link to my resume as a .pdf file in my portfolio section, I would give it its own section and put within the body of the interface as opposed to linking it away from the site.